SAVVIK SOAKS UP TIME WITH CNN

Savvik Buying Group is wrapping up the 2017 conference scene at the American Ambulance Association Annual Conference and Trade Show in Las Vegas. This highly anticipated conference will encompass proper hiring, managing, reimbursement development and policy. Plus, Savvik is on site throughout the show to boast of its elite ambulance bidding program, as well as support its plethora of affordable products and resources.

The most exciting part of this show, though, is Savvik's own Mickey Schulte, Savvik Buying Group Executive Director, introducing the high-profile Keynote Speaker, Mel Robbins. This leading lady is best known for delivering one of the most popular TEDxTalk's in the world: "How To Stop Screwing Yourself Over".

Robbins is an entrepreneur who owns and operates a multi million-dollar publishing and speaking business. Her phenomenal leadership examples have earned her international attention and the ability to train executive teams at The PGA Tour, Million Dollar Roundtable, PwC, CISCO Systems, YPO, Johnson & Johnson, and Chase Business. Robbins is most known, though, as an award-winning on-air analyst for CNN who drives millions of page views for CNN.com as one of their most prolific opinion writers. Accolades seem to precede and follow this active social media darling who is recognized as "America's Outstanding Talk Show Host" by The Gracie Awards, and has hosted original shows for A&E, Fox and Cox Media. This astounding presenter has appeared as an expert on Oprah, Dr. Phil, Fox News and Good Morning America, is a contributing editor for SUCCESS Magazine, is continually featured in publications like The New York Times and Inc. Magazine. Savvik is elated to introduce such industry royalty. Please visit the website at ambulance.org for up to date information on the conference.
