Savvik Says is a potent phrase. It's demonstrative and declarative, and that's because Savvik has proven itself as a reputable non-profit company. With over 20 years of cost-effective, world-class buying power experience in the Public Safety sector, Savvik's effectiveness increases with commitment from vendor partners to provide Savvik members with quality products. That simply means Savvik can proudly 'say anything.'

Savvik can say things like enter. Like win. Like repeat!

The industry's confidence ignited Savvik's passion to spread the Savvik word with generosity through its Dog Days of Summer Contest. Through July 31st, over 6,300 members and counting are encouraged to enter to win a $300 credit from Hotel Engine, $500 worth of medical supplies, and a $500 grant from Savvik Buying Group. Savvik says that three is a charm and encourages participants to register and try to win each day.

Savvik is that committed to making its members aware of what to expect with Savvik's retail credibility. Savvik says to visit the website, enter to win via the short survey and registration, and repeat that process until the last day of July. Not a bad act to follow! Pass it on! Oops, Savvik Says!
